

Goa College of Engineering organizes Vigilance Awareness Week in its crusade against corruption

Goa College of Engineering organized a Vigilance awareness Week from 31st October to 4th November, 2022 recently. The programme objective was to raise awareness of the menace of corruption and spreading the message of integrity in all spheres of life among students, staff and other members of the fraternity.

The week witnessed a host of events, like the awareness rally blended with the integrity pledge, Quiz competition, Essay competition, Poster competition and Group discussion on this year's National theme "Corruption free India for a developed Nation". These events witnessed a wholehearted participation among students and staff.

The Valedictory function was held on 4th November, 2022 with Mrs. Sapna S. N. Bandodkar, Dy. Director (Admn), Department Of Animal Husbandry And Veterinary Services, Government of Goa as the chief guest. She delivered a talk on the way corruption manifests itself and the remedies for the same. The event was presided over by Dr. R. B. Lohani, Principal, Goa College of Engineering and Dr. Sebastian Mesquita, Vigilance officer of the institute. Trophies and certificates were awarded to the winners and the participants in the hands of the Chief guest and other dignitaries present. The event was compered by Dr. Adlete Mascarenhas, Associate Professor in Chemistry. The vote of thanks was proposed by the Vigilance officer, Dr. Sebastian Mesquita.

The whole event was coordinated by the Department of Science & Humanities in association with the student's council.
